A Message from Pastor Allman

By Pastor David Allman

The month of May is filled with days of celebration. On the secular side there is Mother's Day (14th), Armed Forces Day (20th) and Memorial Day (28th). On the religious side there is Ascension Day (25th); and, somewhere in the mix of the secular and religious, this year in May we will be honored to celebrate with Harvey Lentz his 100th Birthday (27th). We will actually recognize his birthday with a cake in our Buhr Hall on the 21st after the worship service. Please plan to join us for this providential occasion, and be encouraged to bring a birthday card to help Harvey remember this special birthday. It would be wonderful if he could receive 100 (or more) birthday cards from his Redeemer family.

Ascension Day, A.K.A. Feast of the Ascension, Holy Thursday, or Ascension Thursday commemorates the bodily ascension of Jesus into Heaven. Acts 1:9 reads, "...as they were watching, (Jesus) was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight." There are forty days between the Resurrection and Ascension Day. The Apostle Paul references those forty days in his first letter to the Corinthian church. "For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. (1 Corinthians 15:3-8, NRSV).

Different Christian denominations commemorate Ascension Day with a variety of rituals. Many Protestant denominations, including our congregation, commemorate the Ascension on the following Sunday. However we recognize Ascension Day, it is important to remember that Jesus has transferred the mission of “making disciples” over to the Church. Jesus’ last words on earth include, “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you” (Matthew 28:19-20, NRSV).

In the seventeenth chapter of John’s gospel Jesus prayed for his followers and for their mission in his name. As then, even today, the world has religious, social, and economic divisions, and we seek the unity that Jesus had with his Father. Made one in baptism, we go forth to live our faith in the world, eager for the unity that God intends for the whole human family.

We have completed our second Alpha course and are already gearing up for the next one. Participants gather for dinner and fellowship at 6:15 PM followed by the DVD at 6:45 PM and then small groups from 7:15 - 8:00 PM. If you haven’t tried the Alpha course yet, stay tuned for the Fall 2017 schedule beginning September 11, 2017; plan to attend and bring a friend!

Our Visitation/Communion Teams continue to reach out to our members in need with companionship and communion. Our parish nurses are providing support to our members with medical issues. If you know of anyone who needs visiting or help with a medical question, or if you would like to be one of our volunteers providing care, please feel free to contact me at carekeepersccr@gmail.com or call the church office at 813-634-1292. Our list of folks who are homebound keeps increasing and we could use more team members to visit them, particularly men to visit other men. If you have a couple of hours a month to reach out to one of these members please consider joining us. It makes such a difference in their lives as many are lonely and craving human interaction; I often receive feedback from those visited saying how much it meant to them. Believe me; you will be even more blessed by the visit!

I want to encourage all of you to attend the Bible Study on Thursday mornings at 10:00 am. This study is led by Pastor Allman and includes a presentation and then time for discussion and questions. They are just starting the book of James, so it is a perfect time to “taste and see”!

Hello Redeemer Family!

by Heather Allman

As I'm writing this, I now have less than a month left in Korea. Looking back on the past two years, I can't believe how fast the time has gone. Even more, the time now only seems to be going faster and faster as I near the end. I will leave Korea on May 19 for England, where Dean and I will spend 10 days in London, the Lake District, and the Cotswolds. I visited London for (a very fast) two days in 2008 while studying abroad in Spain, so I am looking forward to going back, meeting Dean's family, and actually having time to enjoy different areas of the country!

Dean is leaving Korea on May 3rd, so we have been doing our best to not only prepare for leaving, but also take the time to enjoy everything we love about Korea--and some new things we've never done before. April is cherry blossom season in Korea, and as soon as the trees begin to bloom, everyone tries to get outside of the city to truly enjoy their beauty. On the past two Sundays, we visited two different Buddhist temples near Jeonju. We wanted to see the temples, but they are also great places to see the cherry blossom trees. While 30% of Korea's population is Christian, about 15% is Buddhist, and the remainder of the country does not practice a religion. I enjoy visiting the temples to appreciate the beauty and sanctity of the religion. Although it's not what I believe in, it's always nice to take a step back and appreciate something that's important to someone else. That's something I try to remind myself of, especially right now in what seem to be very trying times.

For the next month, my plans are just to enjoy the time that I have left here. My students recently learned that I was leaving, and have not been taking it lightly. One of my younger classes (around age 10) spent a few days crying and they seemed upset with me. They couldn't understand why I was leaving, and asked me why I was choosing to leave them. While it's extremely heartbreaking, it also gave me a sense that I came here and accomplished what I wanted to do. I made an impact in some children's lives, and they've made more of one on mine than they'll ever truly understand. I asked Dean to come in and take pictures of me with my classes, so that I could have some really good quality ones to keep and take with me. We had a really fun day together with them. They all made sure to comment on how tall and handsome he was. One of my students even made sure to tell me how short I was. I've included some of the photos here for you.

I'll write one more letter to you all before I leave here, and before that newsletter comes out, I will be back in Florida and will see you all! I hope you all have a good month, and I'm looking forward to seeing all of you soon!

With God's Love,

Heather

MAY STEWARDSHIP

by Pastor David Allman

The Apostle Paul writes, “Since you excel in so many ways—in your faith, your gifted speakers, your knowledge, your enthusiasm, and your love from us—I want you to excel also in this gracious act of giving” (2 Corinthians 8:7, NLT).

As humans we naturally gravitate toward self-preservation. Generosity is not something that comes naturally, rather it is the result of God's grace in our lives. This is why Paul refers to the Corinthian offering as “this gracious act of giving.” Paul uses the Greek word ‘Charis’ here to indicate that financial giving is as much as gift of the Holy Spirit as any other gift that Paul mentions in his letters. Giving is also identified as a gift of the Spirit in Romans 12:8 (If your gift is giving, give generously), where Paul exhorts the Roman believers that if one's gift is contributing to the needs of others, then that person should give generously.

Among the things that Paul commends the Corinthians for excelling at is “love.” Love must accompany the exercise of all spiritual gifts, otherwise nothing of lasting importance can come of them. I am always grateful for the love in which the people of Redeemer excel. The love of gracious and generous giving shines through to those on the receiving end of our giving as well as those who visit this congregation.

Your love of grace-giving excels through local and global missions, disaster relief at home and abroad, monthly benevolence and outreach projects, community charitable groups, food pantries, pastor's discretion, all the way up to and including the annual spending plan (aka budget). Thank you for being open to God working through you – blessed to be a blessing, if you will.

Paul follows up his previous words in the next chapter with these words, “You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure. ‘For God loves a person who gives cheerfully’” (2 Corinthians 9:7, NLT). Thank you for being a financial part of the ministries that happen here at Redeemer. God uses us all in a powerful way to touch people's lives with the love of Jesus, and in turn others will join us in giving thanks and praise to God.

Social Ministry Project Thanks you!

Sister Sara Migrant Moblie Medical Unit

The congregation really stepped up to the plate to support the medical mission of Sister Sara. Rosalie and Lois presented her with the generous donation and many items purchased by the Thrivent Action team. Through our support, Sister Sara will continue to affect many lives in our community. The members of Social ministry are so grateful for your continuing support of projects and benevolences.

May Social Ministry

My Warriors Place

Social Ministry selected My Warriors Place in Ruskin for May's social ministry project. My Warriors Place was founded by Kelly Kowall whose son Corey, like many others, gave his life for our continued freedom. My Warrior's Place, and all those involved with My Warrior's Place, understands that there are no words that can express how grateful we are to those who make the sacrifice by serving in the Armed Forces so that we have the opportunity to live in the land of the free. There are absolutely no words that can be said to comfort those families whose loved one(s) gave the ultimate sacrifice while protecting us and our country. We will never be able to thank you enough.

My Warriors Place is a Retreat Center for Veterans, Military Service Members, First Responders, Gold Star, Blue Star and Silver Star Families. Additionally, My Warrior's Place offers several amazing programs for those who have put their life on the line for our safety and well-being, endured the death of a Fallen Warrior and/or experienced the horrors of war. Each program offered by My Warrior's Place plays an important role in the healing and coping process, and the support that is obtained through these programs is priceless!

If you would like to visit the site, please contact Kelly Kowall at 813-321-0880. We hope you support this deserving organization.

Thank you, Social Ministry committee

May Benevolence

Leaders in Mission

Social Ministry has chosen Leaders in Mission for the May benevolence. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) Fund for Leaders in Mission awards full-tuition scholarships and partial-tuition scholarships to students of ELCA seminaries.

The Fund for Leaders in Mission builds an endowed scholarship resource that provides tuition assistance to qualified candidates studying at the church's eight seminaries. Its first eight scholarships were awarded in 2000. The Fund for Leaders in Mission is administered through the ELCA Foundation, which encourages lifelong stewardship in support of all ministries of the church.

Rev. Donald M. Hallberg, executive director, ELCA Foundation said, "The Fund has already raised $1.6 million toward meeting the Thrivent Foundation Challenge." Hallberg said the Fund's long-term goal is to have at least $200 million in its endowment, so it can provide full-tuition scholarships for every student at ELCA seminaries who is committed to a future in parish ministry.

Information was collected from ELCA.org

We hope you will support this group.

Easter Brunch

Thanks to everyone who worked to make the Easter Brunch a success, to Thrivent for the funding, and to those who donated food items. Our Lady's Food Pantry was the recipient of the items that were collected and was very appreciative.

Evangelism

One of the things we are reminded of at Easter every year is that God can do and often does the unexpected. We once again heard all of the familiar Holy Week and Easter stories a few weeks ago. The disciples had certain expectations of Jesus as Messiah. The people who lined the streets of Jerusalem had certain expectations about Jesus. The religious leaders in Jerusalem had certain expectations about Jesus. Herod and Pilate had expectations about Jesus. Even Satan had expected a victory when he convinced God's creatures to put God to death. God did the unexpected!

Ephesians 3:20-21 (NRSV) reads, "Now to (God) who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen." Paul says that God can do "far more than we can ask or imagine." Do we believe that to be true?

Matthew 19:26 (NRSV) reads, "Jesus looked at them and said, 'For mortals it is impossible, but for God all things are possible.'" Jesus tells us that "for God all things are possible." Do we believe that?

If we answer yes to each of those concepts, basically that God can do anything God wants, then what stops us from inviting others to "come and see" what is happening at Redeemer? Do we somehow believe that God can do anything, except through us? Do we believe God can do more than we imagine, just not through us? Do we believe with God all things are possible, just not through us?

The Bible is filled with stories of God doing the impossible, and yet we individually rebel against the idea that God can do the impossible through us. One person described faith as learning to believe when there is no reason left to believe. God does not ask us to invite others to "come and see" because we are already good at it. God asks to us have faith that when we follow God's lead, God will do the unexpected (dare we say impossible) through that small step of faith.
