A message from Pastor Allman by Pastor David Allman

In the book, Out of the Question... Into the Mystery, Leonard Sweet writes a chapter called "The true test of Relationship" and it starts with these words, "God settles for nothing less than full engagement."

The second part of Redeemer's Mission Statement is to "GROW IN FAITH." Sweet would argue that being obedient to attending worship, giving an offering, serving on a ministry team, etc. is only part of what God desires. When asked to name the greatest commandment Jesus answered, "You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind" (Mt. 22:37, NLT).

If you were to separate your Christian life into "Obedience" and "Relationship", how would you grade yourself? I am about 98% German by ethnicity. I was raised by Germans, who were raised by Germans, and so on. From an obedience perspective, I am loyal and dutiful. When I have a job to do I will get it done. Sometimes that requires sacrifice; and, sometimes the sacrifice is relational. I would pass the "Obedience" test with an A+; although, I have often flunked the "Relationship" part of the test. If a student gets 50% of the test questions right, is that sufficient?

Set aside any negative connotations you have about the word "test" and translate what I have written into the idea that, "God settles for nothing less than full engagement." Am I being fully engaged when I ignore the relationship part of my God-Life? Are you? I have often counseled that God desires a "Human-Being" as much as God desires a "Human-Doing." Yet, there are times when I need to play back that advice to myself.

During times of personal struggle in the Bible, God often answers with these or similar words, "Be still and know that I am God." While we are praying for God to remove the struggle (i.e., do something), God tells us to "be still" in relationship. From the very beginning, Genesis, the Bible teaches that God created us to be in relationship with him. That may not be easy to start if you are not currently being still. Your first question might be "How do I do that?" for which the answer would be "You do nothing!" Literally! Be still! Know God!

I think it is especially hard if you were raised to pull yourself up by your own bootstraps or some similar sentiment. In that case the idea of “being still” sounds more like “doing nothing.” Have you ever been in a relationship where it was enough to sit quietly and be together? If you have, and found that fulfilling, then you will understand how God simply requests you to “be” in God’s presence. Still your actions, silence your thoughts, silence your words, forget your to-do list, silence your phone, silence the radio, silence the television, and be fully engaged with God. Be still and listen for and to God. Know God with your entire being.

Pastor Allman

News from the Office Administrator

July 2019

This is a quiet time in the offices! It is a great time for us to catch up on things that we haven’t been able to get to as well as begin planning for the fall. We do have a lot of things coming up in the fall, like Alpha, for example. This program is a nice way to introduce your friends to Christianity in a low-key, non-threatening environment. Redeemer will offer Alpha on Thursdays from 12:00-2:00 PM with lunch included. St John the Divine will offer the program on Mondays from 6:30-8:00 PM with dinner included. Please consider attending the first day and “taste and see”. There will be no obligation. Also in the fall, the Parish Nurses have begun to schedule educational events for the congregation and the community. Lifeline will be here in September and the Health Fair will be November 4th from 9:00 AM-12:00 PM. More is being planned!

We have a volunteer willing to take the military coupons to Freedom Plaza! They are only accepting food coupons.

Kadie and I are trying to keep things in the office updated. If anything has changed in your membership information could you please let us know? Particularly if you have had a change of phone number, address, emergency contact, etc. We frequently end up not knowing how to contact someone if we haven’t seen them in awhile. Thank you!

Our Visitation/Communion Teams continue to reach out to our members in need with companionship and communion. Our parish nurses are providing support to our members with medical issues. If you know of anyone who needs visiting or help with a medical question, or if you would like to be one of our volunteers providing care, please feel free to contact me at carekeepersccr@gmail.com or call the church office at 813-634-1292. Our list of folks who are homebound keeps increasing and we could use more team members to visit them, particularly men to visit other men.

Upcoming Events:

Thursdays at 10:00 AM – Bible Study in Buhr Hall. Refreshments will be served! (No Bible Study on July 4. Please join us again July 11th.)

Friday, July 12th at 12:00 PM– Women’s Bible Study in Buhr Hall.

JULY

STEWARDSHIP

by Pastor David Allman

One way to describe July in Florida is “hot & sticky.” It is almost too miserable to go outside. It is close to 80 degrees before the sun rises. When you walk outside, it is hard to breathe. The air feels dense, almost as if you could swim in it. The A/C units work overtime to simply keep the inside relatively cool and less humid. Once you do venture outdoors, because we all must at some point, the heat is unbearable and the clothes stick to your body-- “hot & sticky.”

Writing about Stewardship is also a sticky situation. If you have read the article this far, you are to be commended. Many people stopped reading as soon as the word “Stewardship” appeared in the title. I cannot say how many times I have heard, “What I do with my money is between me and God.” That is absolutely true, except when the person saying it thinks the Bible has nothing to teach them about stewardship.

The Bible has a lot to say about money, wealth, greed, contentment and a variety of other topics as they pertain to our financial and spiritual lives. I have heard it said that the Bible has well over 2000 verses about money. Jesus talked more about money than prayer, heaven and hell combined! Jesus talked more about money than anything else except the Kingdom of God. In 16 of 39 parables Jesus talked about money and possessions. In 1 out of every 7 verses in the Gospel of Luke Jesus talked about money and possessions.

What you do with your money is between you and God; and, God is very interested in what you are doing with your money. Jesus said if one wants to know what is important in a person’s life, then follow the money. “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also” (Mt. 6:21). Jesus also said not to focus on accumulating treasure on earth, “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth... store up for yourselves treasures in heaven” (Mt 6:19-20).

Jesus did not speak about money because he was obsessed with money, or because he wanted us to have lots of it, rather because Jesus knew that money was a heart issue and that it is one of the most likely reasons for someone to not follow him or to give up on him. The Devil wants you to fall in love with money, so you will become a slave to money rather than its master. The flip side is when we use money as a tool to invest in God’s kingdom; money becomes a powerful instrument for good.

Money is important to the extent that how we think about it will impact how we behave with it. Taking this one step further, how we think and behave with money reflects our spiritual condition. When we hoard money; or are envious of other’s money; or spend money we do not have then there is a good chance we have been seduced! Jesus said, “No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and be enslaved to money” (Mt 6:24).

Why did Jesus make such a tough statement? Because Jesus knew that our relationship with God would be deeply impacted by our relationship with money. If we worry about money then we will not trust God. As with the above verse much of what God’s word says about money are warnings. God wants nothing to come between God and us. The Bible talks about money because God loves you and God does not want it to harm you.

Please see the list of supplies requested to aid in your shopping for items to donate. If you would like to donate money (we will do the shopping for you), please write school supplies on your check and make note on your church envelope. Thank you for your help!

Evangelism

The Tampa Conference Spring Gathering was held on May 11th and the topic of the day was Evangelism. The main point of the day was that Evangelism is every Christian's responsibility. Thank you to Carolyn Cole for going along to help represent Redeemer.

Some relevant teachings were shared throughout the day, beginning with worship. We were privileged to hear our Assistant to the Bishop, Rev. Khader El-Yateem, deliver the sermon. He shared that as he has traveled around the southern half of Florida, he has found that all our congregations have at least one thing in common. Every Church says that they are a welcoming congregation. He also shared that it is good to be welcoming to those who come, although we are missing the first step and that is to be an inviting congregation. Jesus commanded us to go out from the Church building and into the community to invite others to come to our Church. After that it will be important to welcome the people who come.

We were hosted by the Lutheran Church of Our Savior and their Pastor, Jose-Luis La Torre-Cuadros, gave the keynote address on Post Modern-Evangelism. Some points from his address were that in our post-modern world the people who choose no religious affiliation (nones) are beginning to outnumber Christians; that people are choosing personal spiritual practices over institutional religion (Churches); that people are finding meaning in fictional stories in which the main characters are marginalized, become chosen ones, and experience dying and coming back to life – i.e. stories of redemption; so, it is more important than ever for every Christian to tell the story of Jesus' being marginalized, chosen, dying and being resurrected; and, why that is important in each of our lives.

Carolyn attended a breakout session led by Cheryl Stuart, Synod Vice President, that stresses how every one of us can share our personal story of how Jesus is important in our lives; and, how every one of us can tell the story in such a way that we can touch on all of the central parts in two minutes or less. At times this has been called our "elevator speech" because of the time an elevator takes to move between floors. In this day and age with so much busy-ness, two minutes may be all the time one has before we lose the others person's attention and they move on to the next thing. Please talk with Carolyn Cole if you wish to know more about how to share your story in two minutes.

Rev. Kahder El-Yateem, Assistant to the Bishop, led a breakout session on congregational vitality, program that was unveiled at the Synod Assembly June 6-8. This program will be introduced to all congregations as a one-year program to help congregations stay vital, return to vitality or become vital. This will help us move from hearing God's dream, to understanding God's vision, to sharing God's mission, to living out the expression of God's mission in our community, to congregational vitality. This cycle will repeat every five years, lest the congregation slip into decline and possible closure.

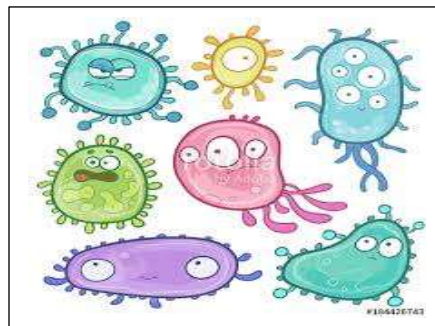

As disciples of Jesus we are commanded to "go and make disciples" (Mt. 28:19). This is called Jesus' Great Commission and it is not considered optional. It is a command from our Lord Jesus. In fact, it was the last thing Jesus said before returning to heaven, so it needs to be considered vital. Only you can share your story about why Jesus is important to you. For the sake of the Church, please pray about this.

BE THE GERMINATOR !! From Parish Nurse Team

Knowing the places in your home where germs gather can help you reduce those germs before they potentially sideline you with an illness.

Here, in order, are the top 10 areas/objects where researchers found germs in a recent study.

1. Kitchen Sponge – The study found sponges to have the highest concentrations of salmonella, E Coli, yeast, and mold and some contained staph bacteria. To kill the germs, regularly wet the sponge and heat it in the microwave for one minute.
2. Kitchen Sink - Bacteria from raw meats and other foods can flourish and grow. After food preparation, especially with raw meat, wipe down surfaces with hot soapy water.
3. Toothbrush Holder – Mold and yeast are the main culprits, but the study found that those in close proximity to the toilet also had E Coli and staph. Clean by soaking in mouthwash or a vinegar/water solution for a couple minutes and then rinse. Let air dry. Or wash the holder in the dishwasher.
4. Pet Bowls – They often harbor mold, yeast, and coliform bacteria. Clean often.
5. Coffee Makers – Water reservoirs often contain mold and yeast. Clean according to the manufacturer's instructions.
6. Faucet Handles – You touch them with dirty hands before you wash and then touch them again to turn off the water, often transferring germs back on to your hands. Clean often with soap and water or disinfectant wipes..
7. Pet Toys – Pet toys often have staph bacteria – the highest of any item in the house in the study.
8. Kitchen Counters – Salmonella and E Coli were the most prevalent due to food preparation. Clean counters often with hot, soapy water.
9. Stove Knobs – Stove knobs also frequently have salmonella and E Coli. Clean with hot soapy water or disinfectant wipes.
10. Cutting Boards – They may not contain the most germs, but they can contain Salmonella and E Coli. Do not cut vegetables or other food on a board where you have cut meat without first washing the board in hot soapy water – or use separate cutting boards for meats and fruits/vegetables.

Bible Study

Bible study is back on July 11th. Please join us again on Thursday at 10:00 AM for Bible study. We are currently studying Proverbs. No prior knowledge of the Bible is required, and you don't even need to bring a Bible. One will be provided for you. All guests are welcome to attend.

Refreshments are served and it is FREE!

Women's Bible Study

Women's Bible Study meets at noon the 2nd Friday of each month. Women's Bible Study will meet again on July 12th.

Susan Wold and Paula Simenson co-lead the Bible Study. A new topic for summer from the Gather magazine is For Such a Time Like This—Lessons from Esther by Kay Ward.

In session two we'll learn how, when the Jews are threatened, Esther uses her strong faith and the love of her people to embolden her to act. Through some clever schemes, intelligence and a realistic assessment of her situation, Esther is able to save her people. "For such a time as this" is Mordecai's gentle reminder to Esther that God has placed her in the king's court to use her voice. How might God be reminding us of our need to find our voice as we live out our faith?

Please join us during the next great exploration. All women are welcome to attend, so join us and bring a friend.

PACT Research Study

The Byrd Institute at USF is conducting a PACT research study to see if computerized training exercises can reduce the risk of dementia. If you are over age 65, you can participate as long as you do not have any neurological disorders, have not had a stroke or brain injury, and do not have mild cognitive impairment or dementia such as Alzheimer's Disease. If you qualify to join, you will need to complete three (3) study visits of 1 hour each which will be held at Redeemer and then complete 45 one-hour sessions on your own, in your own home, over the next two years. There are many potential benefits to be gained from participating. More information is on the counter in the narthex. To register, call 1-352-658-3184. For questions, see Lois Hobrathschk.

Coupons for Military Families

It has been a while since we have had some up-to-date information on the coupons for military families program. We get quite a collection of coupons for this program, so if you are someone that clips coupons, please read over this information because it may have changed.

If the following requirements are not met, the coupons cannot be accepted.

No Store Coupons such as Walmart, Fantastic Sam's, Target, Subway, Pet Supermarket, Walgreen's, Dailies contact lenses, Village Inn, etc.

Coupons must have "manufacturer's coupon" printed on them and have a complete bar code. They are not valid unless they have both.

Coupons must be cut individually. Some manufacturers will have coupons in strips of two or more. They are not accepting these coupons if they are not cut separately. This must be done by the original coupon clipper for this program to be a success. There is no volunteer that is willing to sort and cut thousands of coupons. There are approximately 1,400 coupons in a pound!

Currently they are requesting food coupons only. Please make note that Ensure and Slim Fast are considered food and should be included with food coupons. Pet food is not people food so they ask that you do not submit them.

Donated coupons should not be more than 4 months past the expiration date.

Thank you for your participation and adherence to these requirements. The military families greatly appreciate your involvement. God Bless.
